

Alex Flynn / designer

Born and raised in San Diego, Alex knows the unique culture and lifestyle of the city and of households. She grew up in a warm and active household that nurtured her small neighborhood community. Everyone was welcome in her home, so she knows what a busy house can be like!

Art has always been a part of her life, from playing music to sculpting and painting. Now, she has taken her artistic abilities to the realm of interior design. She has a knack for creating beautiful designs while understanding the style and functionality that flooring can bring to a home.

Currently, she is pursuing a degree in visual arts and marketing from Cal State San Marcos. Her education enhances her ability to blend colors, textures, and styles to make your home feel unique and personal. Allow her creative problem solving, expert flooring knowledge, and sharp eye for color create the home of your dreams today.
