

Tammie Coviello / showroom manager

Tammie's talents range from a whole remodel, to a minor update, and design consulting with an emphasis in kitchen and bath design. It is her mission to update her client's home by infusing the client's style with the current trends while still honoring the timeless traditions of design. Tammie is continuously educating herself in the interior design field and surfaces world by attending all scopes of the interior design industry and surfaces industry by attending events and continuing education. She is currently pursuing her AKBA which is a highly respected accreditation given only to the premier designers in the kitchen and bath industry.

She grew up in all four corners of the United States due to her father's service in the military. She is a second-generation designer. Her mother is an ASID interior designer and mentored Tammie throughout the years. Due to her family's frequent moving throughout the United States, her mother made it a priority to explore any historical homes and art museums in the area. This exposure to art and history resonates in how she approaches her client's projects today. Tammie has settled in San Diego for the last 30 years, attending the University of San Diego, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Science in liberal arts. She eventually settled in Escondido with her husband and where they raised their two children. She enjoys golfing with her husband, spending time with her adult children, family and friends in her downtime.
